Tardy Policy: Students are expected to be on time to every class every day. Beginning each semester, if tardy:

- 1st-3rd: verbal warning by teacher and parent contact on 3rd.
- 5th: teacher will speak with parent/guardian.
- 7th: 30 minute after school detention served with the teacher in the classroom. Teacher will speak to parent/guardian again.

After the 8th tardy, teacher discretion may be used for consequences. Once a student has served three 30 minute detentions with a teacher, a student may be referred to the Deans Office for defiance of authority.

Late Work Policy: All completed work is to be printed and turned in the day it is assigned unless otherwise directed. Any work not turned in by the end of the school day one day after it is due is considered late. Students may receive up to 50% credit on late assignments. Students will not receive any credit for late work turned in more than two days after it is due! In addition to class time, students have the following options to complete assignments:

- Free period during the day
- Access period
- Check out a book in the book depository and complete assignments at home
- Before or after school

Make-up work: It is your responsibility to find out what work was missed during any absence. Any work not turned in following the guidelines outlined in the student handbook will be given a zero.

Homework: There should be minimal homework as ample time will be given during class to complete assignments, however, if students are absent or fall behind; they should use out of class time to complete this work.

Student Integrity Oath

I agree to conduct myself with integrity in all regards. I commit to presenting my own work, writing, words, and ideas at all times, unless otherwise attributed. In addition, I will not copy, use communication devices during tests, post assessments for public access, falsely identify myself, or use inappropriate materials. Engaging in any of these activities represents a breach of this oath and subjects me to the disciplinary code of Legacy High School and the Adams 12 Five Star School District. It is my honest intention to uphold this oath.

Plagiarism/Cheating Policy: Plagiarism means to present, as one's own, the work, writing, words, ideas, or computer information of someone else. (Sources could be published or unpublished.) Cheating is supplying, receiving or using devices. (Examples: looking at or using someone else's work, using crib notes/stolen notes, or using disallowed equipment, etc.)

Consequences for plagiarism and cheating (cover all classes and discipline carries over year-to-year):

Matrix for Plagiarism/

- 1st – 0 on the assignment, teacher calls home and referral
- 2nd – 0 on the assignment, 1 day suspension, parent/teacher conference, referral
- 3rd – 0 on the assignment, 2 days suspension
- 4th – 0 on the assignment, referral to District Discipline Hearing

General Guidelines:

- Assessment and grading standards are applied consistently to students of similarly demonstrated ability.
- Assessment results are based solely on demonstrated student progress and achievement of reasonable and clear standards.
- Students who participate in group projects will receive a grade for work as an individual as well as a group performance grade.

In order to receive accurate information regarding your learning, it is vital for you to complete all assignments. If you experience problems with assignments, please see me individually.
